Dear Judge Broomfield:

This is to inform you that the Bureau of Prisons (BOP) can no longer collect on the above-inmate's restitution order in the amount of $4,463.04, through the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program (IFRP). As a result of the decision in Ward v. Chavez, 678 F.3d 1042 (9th Cir. 2012), it has been determined that the BOP lacks authority to collect restitution payments under the schedule in this restitution order. Specifically, we considered whether the restitution order was issued on or after April 24, 1996, whether the restitution was ordered "due immediately," and whether it lacked a payment schedule that could be applied during the inmate's imprisonment. We realize the value of the IFRP and its ability to encourage inmates to be responsible for their debts, and regret we are unable to assist with this particular order for restitution. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact our Legal staff at 520-663-5000 EX 5314.

Sincerely,

Ruiz, M.
Correctional Counselor
